The Democratic way of functioning of any institution is reflected through decentralization and participation. Democratization and participation are contrivances on which an institution must stand accomplish its desired goals. Our college has adopted the practice of participative management and decentralization mechanism in view of successful operation of academic and administrative activities to promote a student-centric and employee friendly environment. To prepare effective human resources and achieve the objective of higher education, the college emphasises the culture of team work and encourages leadership skills among students and teachers by inculcating the sense of duty and responsibility in them. The Governing Body of the college delegates the power to the Principal to frame policies for the smooth operation of academic, administrative, co-curricular and extra curricular activities in the college. For effective execution of academic, administrative, cocurricular, extra curricular activities and extension activities, the Principal encourages decentralisation mechanism for good governance and management. Various committees/ cells like Admission Committee, Library Committee, Examination Committee, Purchase Committee, Construction Committee, Hostel Committee, IQAC Cell, Career Counselling Cell etc. are formed to conduct various programmes by the faculty members. For community service and social outreach activities, NSS, YRC and NCC units are actively working under the guidance of Programme Officer, Counselor and NCC Officer. To develop leadership skills among students, Students Union is formed as a elected body for organising various cultural activities and sports. Two students are nominated to IQAC to place students point of view to enrich quality enhancement process in the institution. Decentralization is realised by giving power to the faculties taking decision in different matters. All efforts have been made to ensure decentralization and participation in managing the institution.

Our institution Seemanta Mahavidyalaya, Jharpokharia stands with strong determination to distinct itself in the educational paradigm. The motto is to realise and reflect the vision of the institution in its multi facet activities. In materialising so by practising the policy of inclusiveness our institution is well known in the district of Mayurbhanj, neighbouring districts and the border states of the district, serving for decades towards spreading higher education to make poor, rural, tribal backward students self-reliant, confident and empowered. UG programmes are conducted in the institution to make the students socially and economically independent. The institution provides spacious infrastructure, discipline learning environment promoting a vibrant campus life through various academic, cultural, social and athletic activities in the college. The able and enthusiastic faculties are committed to profession guiding students to achieve career goals and help them grow as good human beings having strong sense of human values and social responsibilities. The non-teaching staffs are always cooperative to run the official works smoothly helping students for a hassle free campus life. The college has achieved distinctiveness for the user friendly library and well equipped, well maintained laboratories. The flower garden inside the academic block enhances the beauty of the clean and green picturesque surrounding in the campus. The performance of the students in the final examinations is worth mentioning as students from major departments secure positions in the topper list of the affiliating university. In addition to the academic excellence of the students, the institution has achieved special distinctiveness for motivating students towards community service activities through NSS, YRC and NCC units. The students volunteers from these units actively participate community service and social awareness programmes setting great example of community service improving the life of the underprivileged section in the society. The college has unique reputation for encouraging students towards co-curriculum and extracurricular activities through literary and cultural competitions as well as games and sports giving them platform at district and university level competitions to earn laurels for the institution. It has been always the preferential option for parents in to enrol their wards to pursue their education in this institution.
